

GOSSIP FOR HOME PEOPLE -

Every Sunday morning as sure as the her coming from any place, but she is four feet. The river may become navi-siways walking west to Water street, gable yet, if the fight is kept up. where she disappears as suddenly as if the ground swallowed her. She never rabbernecks and walks slowly. She is an enigms to nighthawks. She can't be a ghost, it is argued, because ghosts always ires in white. On one or two occasions never had an ear on her head. She is Missourt.

SULL AFTER THAT ITEM. One night about five years ago the city saitor of the Eagle detailed a reporter over it. That reporter has not returned week before and asked for a position He was a ciever newspaper man and the miy editor has not given up all hopes what part of the world Mr. Peterson is

GAVE IT UP IN DISGUST.

Last year Dr. Johnson, the weather observer, made a guage and drove it in the channel of the Arkaness river near the Douglas avenue bridge with a view. to making daily reports of the rise of the fiver. The following day he went try trail that the river bed had moved and his some high and dry on a sand bar. He gave up guaging such an uncertain thing mailed the guage to one of the piles of the bridge and if anybody is interested in the rise of the river be can go there himself and take measurements.

Folitics of Sedgwick County," He has writes down his exact impressions of the giving particular attention to the stories of the primaries. It will be published cathumously, and Mr. Cox expects to live mixty years yet.

WRITING ITS HISTORY.

LOANS IN NEW YORK.

large loss in New York City. It is a call city because he could not find a place for tions growing in volume

VEST BUCKLE GOES. Wichita trilors no longer put a buckle on the back of yests and since they have a few holes every few courses.

MONEY LOOKS BRIGHT.

Much money in this part of the country, has one interesting incident in connection with it. Most of the paper money pletely new. During the hand times neartw all the bank notes, silver certificates

LOWEST PRICE IN REALTY

The lowest price which real estate ever an estate closed out an estate of the real estate auctioned. One lot which sold for $12 at the suction recently brought 2200 and the others have sold

SHE IS PRETTY YET. One of the prettiest young ladies of Wichita twelve yours ago, now has n lively little family of five children. She lyonay cottages.

JUDGE MUSSELLAR'S JOB.

ELECTRICITY RUINS A STILE The old stills on the north hedge side of fore for east side gusby young people, and it is a significant fact that the south building darwooded as if it more hounted Eliminates this settle, while the oppo-

HOME-MADE WHEELS,

Many people of the observing nature Wheels and on the tracks of house-movformed, and wondered where they came from and how made. They are sections cal out of tame trees brought here from

... ATH ROOM MOTTO.

The sternol fitness of things; the app anglest adags that Telegaliness is akin has a finely bettered motto hanging or the walls which bears this appropriate ansage of Scripture: "Wash me, and I shall be whiter than the snow.

FIRM ICE TO CARRAGE.

Once this city used to be at the meety winter suggest for its next summer's supand winter Cimrle Huff would start his ance of a wild wave, to fill his grafieta Chisholm oreck on Hydraulic avenbusine and cabbages, the natural ice satrles too uncertain to be preditable and mighty proud of them. to this indian climate.

One of the old printers in the Eagle that there wasn't enough water in the ferious woman dressed in black bobs in and before the paper was out and de-up in the postoffice corner. Nobody sees livered to its patrons, the river had riseh

HEARTS ALL THE RAGE NOW. Hearts with the queen of spades counting thirteen is now all the rage in the city. It is a fascinating game from all appearance and worse than the noble men have tried to talk with her, but she order of the Buffaloes, for the man from moves on at the same galt as if she Lunels who patterns after the man from

WEIGHT OF DIFFERENT BOCKS. "I see," said a man the other day, "that the building men in Wichita can't tell the weight of a cubic foot of rock. Every named Peterson to hunt up an item of schooltoy ought to know that. Granite news with instructions to be sure to weighs 165-75; millstone, 125-3; grindtones 133-9; limestone 184-1, and marble 180. There are seven different kinds of one and nineteen kinds of marble.

The first incipient start toward the long onged-for luxury of paving Lawrence venue has a beginning now. The Dold ompany hav hauled many loads of coal inders and ashes from Twenty-first street south. filling several of the sinkholes and making a hard, well-nacked bogs and swamp beds worse than a coun-the water had come down with such force and left the corner of Topeka and Doug-Ins a little lake, Park Massey stood watching the situation with an anxious in his time in Wichita and since it was usiness section has been flooded a foot flowing water clear to the base of the hill cast. There is a slough leaving the river a little above Second street and running diagonally down through town to the east, taking in that always inundated corner at the Manhattan. The police officer mays that whenever the two the spring freshets and annual heavy rains swell both rivers, then will come a heap of woe. He points out that the busios is inexpilcable. The people who and the river banks closer together, thus have it do not seem to be hunting in-nadding to the bulk of the water that would rush through and certainly overflow the banks.

SAME OLD FEAR.

BEN HUR LEASE'S POETRY. Every little while comes the report of some new achievement or some new hon- But he couldn't let the little chick die. had no use, or at least have had no use or won by the scholarship and ability of the must save its life. But how? He since the day men ate so long and hear-thy that they had to lot their belts out. They are all very bright, industrious and general survey. He was unsuccessful. cornest in their school work and each He couldn't find it. He then pried up a has won distinction in some line of schol- portion of the flooring, fell through, skinariy attainment. In the last lasue of the | ned his shin, and broke the lantern. Then The Old Apple Tree," written by Ben Hur Lease, who, by the way, is the official class poet of the large class of this year. The poem is of four stantas of six years each and is a beautiful gem of pount, full of power, scale in the large class of this twedged in and squawking for dear life. He next found a long wire, make a hook at one end, caught the chick by one leg and tried to pull it out. It was wedged to explore and manny between two joists, by the fifti glare of the large class of this lamp he saw the chick upside down, the saw the chick upside down. It is the most difficult thing in the world for most people to master and some will never do it, although it looks easy. Most at his home last night.

After hearing this talk for a week or so a man thinks he can "follow through" all right. He tries it and falls down. It is the most difficult thing in the world for most people to master and some will never do it, although it looks easy. Most at his home last night.

Two hops berger Lewis, A. Stough were recreated to the most difficult thing in the world of the players draw the chick upside down. It is the most difficult thing in the world for most people to master and some will never do it, although it looks easy. Most the second of the players draw the chick upside down.

The poem is of four stantas of six wedged in and squawking for down. It is the most difficult thing in the world for most people to master and some will never do it, although it looks easy. Most this home last night.

The course of the large chase of this lamp he saw the chick upside down.

It is the most difficult thing in the world for most people to master and some will never do it, although it looks easy. Most the second of the players draw the chick people to master and some will not be a saw the chick upside down.

The poem is of four stantas of six wedged in and squawking for down.

The poem is of four stantas of six wedged in and squawking for down.

The poem is of four stantas of six wedged in and squawking for down.

The poem is of HIGH-FRICED PORCH.

Wichits will have, when completely, randa in the state, on a private residence. and cost, when all finished, close to $3,000 the cost of many complete, well-built,

MAJOR DELANEYS PHILOSOPHY. Col. Dell Delaney gives forth the startling proposition that civilization is fallure, and as proof of his positio cites the putent fact that in ancient days wallow in indolence and just hunt and ing agents in the Wichita country which | fish all the year around to his heart's content, and revel in a wide, shoreless sea onsted effere high class civilization only the very rich and affluent can afford to theffule Bill Matheuson's pastare lot at kunt and fish, and the poor must forego sub juxuries in order to keep a close and

> STORY OF AN EXCAVATION. At the corner of Murdock avenue and weak cause advocated it with that was always an object of some specu-lation to most Wichita youngsters who in on I times past have slid down its slopling sides or hid in its capacions interior during a hard pressed game of barbaree at The hole or excavation has been there ellen noticed the big solid block ever since "Heck was a pup" and within the memory of oldest inhabitants there never was any building on it.

about it at different times but no one on College Hill the other day, impells seemed to know just what it was or what by the golf craze which has Wichita at comething about that hole and a visit would take the time to seize a club and was accordingly made to Mr. Hunter in beit a small white ball aroung an eightysearch of information "You," mild Mr. Hunter, "I know a little about the history of that hole There was never any house or building upon a rubber teacup. Off to one aid named Jack McAdams. McAdams was of a booting full of cames. The man on early day Wichita character. He yelled "Fore!" whaled into the ball to boots in these days, but McAdams' were you keep away from the front?" extra special. They extended well up town and were the object of much admir- pects are away beyond those of chess, when he is caught himself he kicks. ation and accemed to be surrounded by a After a man has played a while this is he excavated that hole at the corner up knock a ball 20 yards, and not more than In every other city to the world they are Fall River I sent for a doctor and dry office has made an important discovery. There. He got a number of the boys in-for mostly fifteen years be has been set. Iterested in the proposed botel and they, the two golf clubs here has moments of hypnotized by the famous boots or by the insanity when he is convinced that he for stealing the water of the Ar- eloquent tongue of McAdams, took up can. He is probably up to his ears in Last Tuesday when several beits of it concessed and said Mrs. Elical has been raised, and september tongue of McAdams, took up can. He is probably up to his ears in rise. A short time ago the Eagle said Adams and he mounted his pony and links right now, you would sweep the sure that it struck their neighbor's car, where it was placed on two chairs, etc., which have a pure water supply, the started for Fort Leavenworth to make arrangement for the lumber for the new for neither McAdams nor his boots ever ball will drop right there."

Dutchman said that after Mc bought the among the spectators. It consists in putto do would be to tell the boarders what they had for a meal and get it for them and to always ask at dinner whether they wanted soup or not. McAdams made his febut as a watter at the dinner hour and he stalked into the dining room in all the glory of his fancy boots and hot under the collar. He tackled the first bourder The man with 'say, de ye want soup?' said he didn't care for soup." 'Well, ye've got to take it, ye blathering oumsdon, says McAdams, and he shoved the plate under the boarder's nose and the big fight was about to start. McAdams was not a cess as a waiter for he tired of the After the big rain of Wednesday when life in a day and blowed the town."

its untural course down the river, and It was chirpleg all the time, but he He got out again and didn't hit the ball hard, and he didn't destudied the architecture of the porch. He figured that it must be behind a foundation stone. He took a crow bar and pried the corner stone out, and the porch ettied four inches. He then rushed about and got some blocks and by heaving and sweating finally got the porch upright once more. He then reached under where the chirp was, but he couldn't find any It looked like a hopeless case. ollege Review, the debate number, of he got a lamp and concluded that he neck for a fry without a pang.

CLASSICS OF THE EARLY DAYS the Judge came fresh from college that he was wont to then as now make trial of some petty case the opposition lawyer in tones loud enough to be heard ence of the Big and Little Arkansus river was expounding his client's cause; at the nclusion when the judge came to reply he said that he read not long ago that Cloero had somewhere said "that he had observed that the men who had a Main street, just south of the big strength of voice upon the same principle barn there is a large hole in the ground that a lame man got upon a horse to on the other side interposed and sauf, Who in the Devil is Cleare?" judge paused and hesitated for a suitable reply and finally remarked: "He is an id cuss who lives down on the Nines-"Well," said the other counsel, "He is no authority in this court

WHAT THERE IS IN GOLF. Giles Smith went out to the golf links the end of a short halter and is leading Some one told an Eagle reporter that people this way and that, and tried to

He tells this story: A man was standing to be that people are wearing more over the hall with a club, the ball fixed clothes. It was dug there in 1371 by a man steed a caddy, sweating under the weight profusely etnamented with stars and Now, the charm of the game is this-club around this way, hit that ball square and away it would go, further than you

ent up into Washington territory with arises, feels his arms, is sure that he can a friend of mine and way up in the peel the hideoff that infernal little sphere, atmosphere, northern part we stopped at a little mining town in the wilderness and while on the car; he nears the club house; he there a Dutchman who run a miner store gets out a club, "hefts" it, picks up the told us about a man from Kansas with a clubs and makes out to the first teelog interest in the hotel and paid over his ting the head of the club down to the says what he used himself would more formia, revisited the city, money that his new partner told him that ball, raising the club as if to strike, but than pay for the entire food cost of his Lewis Locker, who forms he would have to wait on the table. Mc- lowering it gently, and doing this over hennery. Adams balked at this but the partner was and over again, before actually striking. firm and told him that all he would have The man who is sure he can swipe the ayilghts out of the ball addresses the ball once. As he does so the marvelous change in the ball takes place. It begins to dwindle. He notes his confidence go-ing and tries to stop it, and addresses the sumpkin seen from his office; here before it with its sinster surface shining may miss it, he addresses it the third time. It is now the size of a pea. Suddealy he realizes that his arms are getting limp, that he hasn't enough strength left to push a hole through wet tissue paper, and gives it up. He goes away from the ball and lines up before a tuft of grass and whales away at that One day a hen belonging to F. T. If only the ball had been there, he would Allen walked out from under the last have paralyzed it. He is sowere that he porch with fifteen chicks, which Mr. would that he walks up to the ball and Allen placed in a coup. That night he slams into it. It starts off well at a good got home about it o'clock and heard a elevation and then suddenly ducks to plaintive chirp under the porch. Evidently the ground See feet away. Then he is there were sixteen chicks and the old hen sorry that he ever left town, and swears had left one behind. Getting a saw and that he will never come again, but inasan ax and a lantern Allen broke into the much as he is out, he might as well make porch and in the dust of twenty years an afternoon of it. So he follows up made his way back into the cavern and the hall and gives it indifferently a tried to get his hand on the chirper. He whack. To his profound astonlehment seemed to be just on the point of saving that ball lifts and sails away through rivers rise at the same time there will be the chick when the light went out Slowly the air, higher and higher and with a has enough rain or snow and closes the got matches, made his way under again dich gates and allows the water to take and tried to find that chick. He couldn't, intended, but inspiring. He is sure he liberate. How did he do it?

you "follow through." ing through. The men who have made a gers, are now mighty good friends. study of golf say that where the head of the club's and arm's utmost, the head It is not generally known that the first Kaiser, Charley Handler, Ed. Davidson, of the club and ball remain together for name suggested for Wichita was Hamil- Charley Lawrence, Wafter Wright, Harthe club which is swept swiftly imparts early statesman. Samuel J. Crawford. Cormick and Henry Stallings .

to the ball completely the club's velocity then governor of Kansas, and one of the Miss Dora Sherman of Galveston was the College of the City of New York, a would save that chirper if it took all higher magazine published monthly by hight. He had now been working two the students, there is a fine poom entitled hours. It was 1 o'clock. He took the saw and began to explore and finally flux Lease, who, by the way is the offi-

That was three months ago. He saved it will dedge off to one side or the other Wichita police force. its lie and yesterday he walked out into like a wet watermelonseed. If it is struck | Officer Crawford a attending physician | Mrs. J. T. Jones. the back yard and wrung that chicken's not swept, the ball will go a considerable distance, but it will lace flight. The bigwest thing in the same is a men- that amputation will be necessary. tal confidence; the boys play it well A few days ago a reporter for the Eagle | They are sure they can paste it, and do, happened to be in a law office where by After a man is lugging around 20 or 40 accident several attorneys were found pounds of fiably fat and isn't sure of with their feet on the table and were in a himself any more, he wouldn't bet ten reminiscent mood. One of them told a cents with a hole in it that he could hit the ploneer days, when people thought ood story in which Judge Wall figured. | the side of a barn. And the chances are It seems that in an early day when that, except when he doesn't intend to hit it, he couldn't.

But the hope springs eternal, and that some classical references; one day in the is why so many people keep going and trying. So true is that matter of power of confidence that the first games played by covices are good, and practice makes imperfect speedily.

WHAT TITUS LOOKS LIKE. Found Titus says that he was on Pe-kin's wall for about half an boor. He dingers. I would pinch up the lif with wounded on the day he climbed the wall eing the first man up, he did not think that he had done anything of particular ilm would be made in America until long | den't have to wear glasses. fierward, when the American newspapers arrived. Time is a very small young man, of short stature, very slender, his face almost girlish. His eyes are light

TAILOR-MADE LLOTHES BOOM. An East Douglas avenue tallor said esterday that twice on three times more jost and the next instant the car begun to opie are wearing tailor-made clothes The clothing men are selling

MAN WHO CHANGED HIS MIND. Friday afternoon the dog catcher ap--ared at the city building with a load of was a big. husky red faced, red hearded drive it straight ahead, hit it a dab on dogs, and the sight inspired a patriot Kinley and the children got up at once, irishman and he always were a pair of one side, and the ball flipped up in the head on high-beeled, ornamented boots. Almost mir and hit ---e caddy in the stomach and by which unlicensed ranking are taken the corner of the raised part of the car every male resident of Wichita were doubled him up, and the man said: "Can't up and done away with. He proved to be roof. I lifted her off it and held her for very friendly to the dog catcher until two or three minutes before she showed extra special. They extended well up A good many other people have seen curiosity impelled him to examine the any sign of life. The train men and pas-outo the calf of the leg and the tops were the game just as Giles Smith saw it. captured dogs. He found his own among sengers got all the passengers out at the explured dogs. He found his own among sengers got all the passengers out at the them, and then he became indignant and windows above, and by that time our hars and criss crosses set in red leather. hypnotism. The physical side of the wanted to lick the dog cutcher. It is broke the sash out of the car door and The boots were in fact at that time con- sport is in no way superior to driving human nature. A man stands up for the we lifted Mrs. Smith out through it. sidered one of the artistic effects of the spikes on a failroad track; its mental as system that catches his neighbor, but had just time then to return for my house. If people keep cool in a lightning storm, and are quick at measuring time, ver sent it before. You show that little they can easily tell how near they came surgeon there made a thorough examina- for ten years, while in Albany, Buffal-"The boys waited anxiously for his reridge over beyond the deep gully with to being struck by lightning. If thunturn and the few who left are waiting yet the dead sunflowers in it-well, your golf der is heard one second after the flash. Nor. At this writing she is slightly imLUI per 100,000. they may know that they are safe and proved, showing occasional moments of At that point all business torns dull, that their neighbors are safe, for sound "In 1872," continued Mr. Hunter, "I brown and monotonous, The stricken man travels at the race of 1120 to 1121 feet per about her. second according to the condition of the HENS MAKE BIG MONEY. Chickens pay. Otto Weiss bought five hens in the winter, and already he has very pretty pair of boots that had come plate, puts the ball on the tee, and sold $5 worth of eggs from them. This up there and bought an interest in the squares himself. tavern or hotel for $300. We knew in a Now there is such a thing as "address-using a good many of the eggs himself minute that it was McAdams. The ing" the ball which causes much hilarity from about 70 heas he has sold $300 worth

WHEN THUNDER IS HEARD.

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO.

The Wichita Water company collector, John Biebrandt, fold a reporter for the lahoma. Eagle yesterday what the people should hall the second time. The ball is to their hydrants and shut off the water. the city on that day, becoming smaller and smaller. It was a if a big fire should occur the pressure at Died-Mrs. A. M. Kearney, mother of the water works would be too weak to Mrs. H. R. Butler. control it it the people didn't turn off Married-Miss amma Rizer and Mr. C. every water escape in the city. If every- E. Welch. there would be fearful disaster.

It seems extravagent to say that it Mckinnon. for each man, woman and child, but the the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, was in the statement is a fact. Some days here the city. water company pumps 5,000,000 gallons of

CAME IN ON SAME TRAIN.

Judge James T. Herrick of Weilington former resident. and Otto Weiss met on Douglas avenue Now what he really did was to "follow Wichita. They found that they came to the really did was to "follow through." After a golfer hears the expression "follow through" he will hang day and on the first Santa Fe train that around people who are talking about it. arrived in the city. That was exactly North Carolina He hears it said over and over again twenty-nine years ago. Judge Herrick Miss Mabel Wise of No. 1317 University that you cannot make a long shot unless went to Wellington and Mr. Welss remained here. Both gentlemen, since mak- Myrtle Foote of marion. The guests were He also hears the philosophy of follow- ing the discovery of being fellow passena matter of ten inches. During that time ton in honor of Alexander Hamilton, an ry Higginson, Octavia Cogdeli, Artis Mc reports that his patient is doing as well fences in front or their doors, a relie of more of keeping chickens than of having J. D. Hewitt on North Emporia avenue. nice yards. Probably five miles of fences were torn down this spring, and the rest Indiana. will probably go during the coming winand Wichita is beginning to realize it.

HOW TO KEEP EYES GOOD. He says they are a babit. "All I did," out the next. In climbing the wall and eyebrew and eyelid and soften the fiesh Guy Levy. and do the same thing under the eye. I wark my eyes that way every day in capitalist, was in the city. ote until the officers congratulated him, the year and have as good a pair of eyes and he had no idea that any mention of for an old man as you have ever seen. I and Miss Phoebe Goldberg were may

> IN THE WRECK. One of the péople in the wreck near every a week ago, wrote this description.

We were going at the rate of about thirty-five miles an hour, and on a curve, when is an instant I felt the car jerk and

Charlie Hunter might be able to tall see why on earth any rational being this year than ave years ago. He con- bank about eight feet black on it sate. siders it one of the best signs of pros- The car bounded and ploughed along on its side and dirt was forced up through more than ever before. The fact seems the windows. Every instant of the few seconds that the car was crashing over expected to be crushed by the car be vied us, and the moment we stopped I called out that we were all right. water from the water tank showered on suchel, coat and a few articles scartered before the fire drove me out. The dining glamour of romance in fact one of the the experience, at least in Wichita: the MOTORNEER BELONGS TO WICHITA: car and Pullman bot hourned. Our car most important things of interest pointed game gets his mind down and makes it Wichita has coined a word that is as had broken loose from the day coach as out to a stranger in the town was Mo's look like 30 cents. It is possible to knock much our own as if it were copyrighted, we went over, and now the rest of the famous boots, and their owner was high one of the small apheres 200 yards, that is. That word is "Motorneer. Away back, tests backed up and the wounded passess." two blocks. When it is so knocked it has a dozen years or more, when the electric gars were put abourd: Mrs. Smith on a Well, about the time they moved the a fascinating fischt, creeping up and up cars were first used in Wichita, somebody out in the bargage car. Passengers and it excites the article upon it and used it and train men did at in their power to care could and healthy at decided that he would build a botel and spired of life. Mighty few fellows can their what they are called to this day. for the wounded. When the train got to disinfect the mouth. blankets for Mrs. Smith. The Sector went has renembered that it is the hieraplace on with us to Needesha, where the Pris- of Virgil, and has set to wirk to erect a Rances of the same that more and he same that more than the first a collection to help the prospective bening number that every time are netticle of that face build a frame building. The boys thing comes into his mind unbidden which run out that their front parts to see both of the Friend at Springfield, Mo. 1500. character appears, the water begins to raised about 500 and gave it to Mc- says to him: "If you were out in the whate it struck. Everybody was quite She was carried on her out to the chair In other like Berlin, Visites, Munich, and she rode quite comfortably. We ar- annual typhoid death rate is only eight rived at Springfield about 1 a. m. The per 100,000. In New York it averaged 30 #

WICHITA TEN YEARS AGO.

Ferd Evans passed his fluxi examinaive scaffold on the city building, fell and a handsome brunstte, and popular to was seriously injured.

Reverend John Kirby, formerly of the twenty-one years old. of eggs, and they are still laying. He Methodist church here, but then of Cali-Lewis Locker, who formerly ran a feed tore on West Douglas, was run over by a train in St. Joe and killed. The officers at the jull were preparing for the execution of Eddle Belden of Ok-

Gertie Greenwood of this city wrote the do in case of fire. Whenever the fire bell | Eagle that is the execution of Beiden had | and Han Hong Nt. who are also being in rings everybody should immediately run to take place sho, for one, would leave structed at Rosnoke.

body allowed their sprinkling hose and Mr and Mrs S. H. Nelson entertained man ran down the steps of the house op-

Carrie Winanta Gertie Thomas, Mabel hlm. WICHITANS ARE WATER DRINKERS Ayer, Alice Van Ness, Myrtle Loe, Corn was in such a burry, and took a careful Wichita is not exactly a prohibition Lord, Gertrude Hays, Mollis Ross, Lord town, but its people held the record as Guthrie, Flora Caswell, Edith Mollat, ners of water. The books of the Grace Young, Julia Woods, Mildred Hays, water company show that the dally con- Winnie Barnes, Nellie Borsey, Lena Cox sumption of water per capita in Wichita and Amy Hays, and Mesers. Kenneth is 200 gallous. No city in the world, according to statistics, equals it in this re- Kelly, Will Campbell, Leslie Larimer, Ira spect. In Milwaukee, the city made fam- Pierce. Roo Stevenson. Boy Aramer. ous by beer, the per capita consumption Ed Jenuings, Ben Anawalt, Will Lewis, of water is S gallons per day. In New Earl Fawcett, Lewis Dyer, Nea Larimer, York City the consumption is 180 gallons. Ernest Noble, Lee Van Werden and Dun

Walter B. Stevens, the correspondent of Judge Henry C. Sluss was appointed judge of the court on Spanish land claims. Miss Gertie Owen of Denver was visitng in the city, of which she had been a

The complaint was general that the Thursday and after being introduced en- tramps were demolishing the vacant tered into conversation concerning early houses in the suburbs. There were plen-

Misses Pluma Kirkhride, Ivy Johnston, Gail Campbell, Lizzie Billinger, Williams, Mary Russell, Lucille Hendryk, the club follows the ball in its flight to NAME HAMHLTON WAS SUGGESTED Libble McLaughlin and Messra, Harry and always gives the ball a reverse reorganizers of the town company, suggestvisiting her mother, Mrs. M. J. Sherman tary motion. Then the ball has all the od Wichita and the latter name was ad-

George Lewis, A. C. John and Charles Stough were recreating on the Walnut. Miss Myrtis Pritchard was almost drowned at Sullivan's dam. She went troiman who holds down the West Doug- down the accord time but was rescued

Two hoys burgistized the home of Mrs. in, and there was nothing to do but to make any of the race for those for so ward them at the moment of contact with single are well known addition. Nobely burglarized the home of Mrs.

Two boys of the race for those for so ward them at the moment of contact with single are not any well known addition. Nobely burglarized the home of Mrs.

Two boys of the race for those for so ward them at the moment of contact with single from bood poisoning caused from head any meney and a few fellows who had not work and finally got the had to horrow to do it mobiled up most.

Two boys burglarized the home of Mrs.

Two boys burglarized the home of Mrs.

The same last night.

Two boys burglarized the home of Mrs.

The boys burglarized the home of Mrs.

The boys burglarized the home of Mrs.

The same last them at the moment of contact with single for the ball in that case the ball starts off and scored from hood poisoning caused from head of a great number of contact with the ball. In that case the ball starts off and scored from hood poisoning caused from head of a great number of contact with the ball. In that case the ball starts off and scored from head of the moment of contact with single from head of the moment of contact with the ball. In that case the ball starts off and scored from head of the moment of contact with the ball. In that case the ball starts off and scored from head of the moment of the moment of the ball in the ball. In that case the ball starts off and scored from head of the moment of contact with the ball. In that case the ball starts off and scored from head of the moment of the head of the moment of the moment of the head of the head of the moment of the head of the moment of the head of th ground. Unless the ball is hit squarely of the dress parade equipment of the Mrs. A. W. Oliver, Mrs. J. H. Biack, Mrs. R. P. Murdock, Mrs. L. B. Ferrell and

W. H. Rauch delivered the address at as could be expected and does not think the commencement of the Wichita Uni-

Walter Stevens, of the St. Louis Globs-FRONT FENCES ARE DISAPPEARING Democrat, was quoted as saying that in The people of Wichita are catching on the summer and fall of 1997 Wachita West to the metropolitan idea of having no banks paid over their counters $4,000,000 stock without improving its quality more than they took in.

C. F. Coffin purchased the residence of Lightning struck a house at the corner the movement of stock. ter if kindling wood is scarce. A front of Cauge and Cherokes streets, West fence is considered in awful had form Sels, and painfully injured an old man impression. named Gaines, the only occupant of the

Mrs. M. B. Cohn, assisted by Mrs. Vic-Martin Hellar wore glasses for ten tor Murdock and Mrs. Joseph Rich, gave change wars, but doesn't wear them any more, a party for her sister, Miss Estella Neghe says, "was to work my eyes with my Biakerm, Panitos Wallenstoin, Lena Cox, the wall for about and an day the company of the wall have the was shot at or my fingers and acted it. That would Niederlander, Imo and Inex Creditor, but he thinks not. He was not keep it from pressing down on the eye-ball. I would get my finger in under the Blanche Fechheimer, Mrs. A. Hess and Pearl Murdock, Beatrice Elch. Studie

Charles H. Hinchman of Philadelphia, a Adelph E. Mendalssohn of Milwankee

ried. The toilers of the british party were as follows: Mrs. S. R. Goldberg, mother of the bride, black wilk fallie, trimmed in black tace, diamonds; Miss Belle Goldberg, pink silk, sted passementerie, gray lippore with gloves to match; Miss Dell Goldberg, oream china silk with Fedora borg, cream hearietts trimmed with Fefors Ince and ribben, black slippers; Mes. careen over, crashing as it went down a Robert Jacks, black hemstliched greundine, trimmed in lare, diamonds; Mrs. A. n lace, dismonds: Miss Amelia Sarbach cream henrietta, trimmed in gold passer the stockmarket.

Mrs. E. P. Hovey, Mrs. L. T. Ewen stight foresation. and Mra McKee gave a musical enteralnment at Gutarie. The street cur system was going to sticks, taking great risks.

ing emashed all out of shape. Reports pease or earnings, of broken trolley poles and guard wires down and the humpety condition of the violently without apparent reason Born-To Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Must. when money is borrowed.

AT. S. SCOL An elevator proposition, with A. A. Hyde George - . Class N. P. Niederlander, Finlay Ross, A. W. Bitting, George Pract. Frank williams, M. C. Com-

bell and L. C. Jackson, was brought forth.

RANDOM COMMENT. The apple is an excellent brain food, bemuch; digested shape than other fruit enend and healthy sleep, and thoroughly Manuel, after nearly twenty centuries, on physician came abourd. a pronounced monument to the great post. The sum of fruit contemers. A visit to the Miss Susun Lloyd Balley, of Atlantin consciousness and recognition of those City, is soon to marry Joseph A. Ireland, The ind was adopted by her brother, Dr. Extra street cars can to the Wichita old and she a beautiful woman of twenty-inversity, now Mount St. Mary's. her interest in him has ripened into love. tion in pharmacy at Emporia.

The marriage will occur early next Ben Hermes, while working on a defect-month. Miss Balley is now thirty-seven ciety. The boy she has raised is just Prince Eul Wha, the second son of the King of Korea, who is a student at Roanone College, Salem, Va., is about twenty years old, and falls in naturally with American munners and customs, with which he expresses himself as very much pleased. He is a young man of pleasant and agreeable manners, and has made many friends. He is accompanied by his two Korean companions, Sim Sung Kes

BLIND OR OTHERWISE

Jones, who lives out on the South Sula left his house the other evening just as a kitchen hydrants to run it is possible that for Sidney Brook of Quincy. Ill. The posite and slipping into the alley, van-Jones noticed the man because ha look at him. Half up hour fater he learned that a during robbery had been attempted and that the man he had seen running down the stone was the rebber. He was sure half a dozen other people who had seen the burgiar so exactly coincided with his own distinct memory of the man he had plenty about the neighborhood. Jones met one of them and talked with him man said that his description tallied exactly with that given by the other eyewitnesses. The policeman said further that they were close on the truck of the guilty man; that they strongly suspected 'a certain party," and would make an

A week later Jones went home late from a banquet and stopped for a moment in a saloon on the South Side within a block of his house. He stepped up to the bur denly struck with surprise and amaze-ment. There, alongshie him at the ber, mood the policeman with whom he had bleen talking drinking a glass of been the steps the night of the burglary. For a few minutes he was too astenished to speak. Then he withdrew to a convenient distance and beckened to the pollouman. drinkink with is the burglar you are looking for.

"Aw, go on," anid the officer, "I'd swear to it," said Jones. "I'm abnotately positive

"Well," said the officer, "If you're so blamed sure about it I'll arrest him. was just trying to make up my mind whether it was him or not when you

The officer arrested the man with whom he had been drinking and took him to the station, where next day, he was identified by half a dozen people, and Jones door? policeman houset or did he oleverly turn

WALL STREET DICTIONARY.

The readers of the Ragle have been hearing a great deal recently shout bears, bulls, shorts, longs, plungers, and a great many other Wall street terms whose the following market dictionary is com-Watering-To increase the quantity of a

Carrying-To hold a stock with the en-19tch Dividend-An assessment upon

Tip-Private information is advance of Hunch-A up based on one's inettnet us

hig Board-The New York Stock Ex-On 'Change-The floor of the stock ex-

The guests were: Misses Lillia Without dealing on any regular exchange. knowledge of the market or its method. peeting on advance. Bear-One who has sold stock and who

Short-One who has sold stocks for a Long-To have brught for a rise.

Londing-To buy stocks beavily. Pool-The stock and money contetbuted Covering-Storing stock to estimy a Block-A number of shares bought or Averaging-likeling or selling stock on a Slump-A spoten decline to the price of Ricom-The opposite of a streep. Bottom - The lowest point or price Top-The highest quotation of a stack.

Healping-Stoying or selling stock on a Piker-A small speculator. Plunger-One who deals heavily in picces. A Surron Car Works our jumped. Since Problem come preparation; one off the track and went into a direct, he which foce not become any statement of ex-

> Crear Market-One which funtuance Collarers -- Any security given in pawn Squeze-A sulfer movement of the > market which forces the bulls or bears to close out their stocks at a loss, Bidge-The upward movement of a Break-A sudden decline coused by a stringency in the money market, Unloading-To sell out stocks which have been carried for some time.

HIG BOOM IN PRUIT.

This is the best year for the fruit frade flat Wichita has ever seet. Sales. what they were up to June II, a year ago, inst your and is one of Wichita's but shipping fruit as fast as they sould drive